Neighbourhood Overview

Yonge and Eglinton is one of Toronto's most dynamic urban nodes, known for its unbeatable mix of transit, amenities, and lifestyle offerings. Situated in the heart of Midtown, the area has become a preferred destination for businesses, residents, and visitors alike.

Yonge and Eglinton represents a new way of thinking about workplace location; where businesses no longer have to choose between downtown prestige and suburban convenience.

This vibrant neighbourhood offers the best of both worlds: a professional, polished environment paired with a dynamic local energy.

It is a setting that supports focus during the workday and offers flexibility before and after.

With a strong business community and a neighbourhood that keeps growing, Yonge and Eglinton continues to hold its place as one of Toronto's most compelling office locations.

Neighbourhood Overview

Transit Hub

A major transit interchange, the area is anchored by Eglinton Station on the Yonge-University subway line with multiple TTC bus routes. The imminent arrival of the Eglinton Crosstown LRT (Line 5) will further enhance east-west connectivity and increase foot traffic across the neighbourhood.

The Eglinton Crosstown provides a midtown connection between east and west Toronto with 25 stations along a dedicated route, making Yonge & Eglinton one of the few locations in the city where north-south and east-west rapid transit intersect. For corporate tenants, this translates to exceptional accessibility office locations.

Amenities & Retail

The intersection is surrounded by national retailers, boutique shops, fitness studios, and essential services. Yonge Eglinton Centre anchors the retail offering, complemented by grocery options like Farm Boy, Metro, and Loblaws, all within walking distance.

Dining & Entertainment

A growing culinary scene offers everything from quick eats to destination restaurants. Highlights include: Grazie, La Carnita, Oretta, and The Keg, alongside coffee shops, cocktail lounges, and Cineplex Cinemas.

Growing Population

With rapid residential development, including over 55 developments currently under construction or in the planning phases at the intersection, Yonge & Eglinton is a high-density, 18-hour neighbourhood. The neighbourhood represent a highly educated, professional demographic, and strong office and residential demand continue to fuel the area's growth and vibrancy.

The Area

Yonge and Eglinton has grown into one of Toronto's most well-rounded business districts. The intersection at the heart of midtown brings together strong infrastructure, steady foot traffic, and a neighbourhood that continues to evolve. It is a place where significant business happens within walking distance of some of the city's best restaurants, cafés, and cultural venues.
