CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

16150 W LINCOLN AVE, NEW BERLIN, WI

By submitting the form below, you agree to the terms and conditions of this listing's Confidentiality Agreement.

Colliers International has prepared this Offering memorandum, which contains select information pertaining to the business and financial operation of the Property. This Offering Memorandum does not purport to be all-inclusive or to contain all the information that may be required by a prospective purchaser. Neither the Owner, Colliers International, nor Owner's or Colliers International's respective officers, employees, or agents makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of this Offering Memorandum or any of its contents, any information as defined below or the condition of the Property, and no legal liability is assumed or shall be implied with respect thereto. You will only be able to rely upon those representations and warranties contained in any final agreement entered into between you and Owner relating to the purchase and sale of the Property.

By acknowledging and accepting the receipt of this Offering Memorandum, you hereby agree:

- 1) The Offering Memorandum and its contents, and all other information (including but not limited to building, Owner and tenant financials) supplied to you, in any manner, by Owner and/or Colliers International (collectively the "information") are confidential;
- 2) You and your shareholders, members, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives (collectively "Purchaser") will keep the information confidential, and will not disclose or otherwise divulge or permit anyone else to disclose or otherwise divulge any of the information in any manner to any other individual, entity or party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser may disclose such information to Purchaser's shareholders, members, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives who need to know such information in connection with the possible acquisition of the Property, provided that such shareholders, members, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives agree to maintain the confidentiality of the Information in accordance with this Agreement;
- 3) Purchaser will not use the Information for any purpose other than to evaluate Purchaser's potential acquisition of the Property;
- 4) Purchaser shall not copy or otherwise duplicate any of the Information, and agrees to return upon demand of Owner or Colliers International all Information and destroy any extracts, analyses, summaries, or other documents prepared from or based upon the Information;
- 5) You and your agents are not entering into a co-broke agreement with Colliers International; and
- 6) The Property and improvements described in this Offering Memorandum are being offered for sale on an "As Is, Where Is" basis without representations or warranties.

The Owner and Colliers International reserve the right, at their sole and absolute discretion, to reject any and all expressions of interest or offers to purchase the Property and to terminate discussions with any entity or person reviewing this Offering Memorandum or Information making an offer to the purchase the Property until a written agreement for the purchase of the Property has been fully executed. If you do not wish to pursue negotiations leading to the potential acquisition of this Property, or if in the future you discontinue such negotiations, then you agree to return this Offering Memorandum to Colliers International. This Offering Memorandum shall not be deemed to represent the state of the affairs of the Property or constitute an indication that there has been no change in the state of the affairs of the Property since the date this Offering Memorandum was prepared.

State Of Wisconsin | Disclosure to Non-Residential Customers

Prior to negotiating on your behalf the Brokerage firm, or an agent associated with the firm, must provide you the following disclosure statement:

Broker Disclosure to Customers

You are a customer of the brokerage firm (hereinafter Firm). The Firm is either an agent of another party in the transaction or a subagent of another firm that is the agent of another party in the transaction. The broker or a salesperson acting on behalf of the Firm may provide brokerage services to you. Whenever the Firm is providing brokerage services to you, the Firm and its brokers and salespersons (hereinafter Agents) owe you, the customer, the following duties:

- The duty to provide brokerage services to you fairly and honestly.
- The duty to exercise reasonable skill and care in providing brokerage services to you.
- The duty to provide you with accurate information about market conditions with a reasonable time if you request it, unless disclosure of the information is prohibited by law.
- The duty to disclose to you in writing certain Material Adverse Facts about a property, unless disclosure of the information is prohibited by law.
- The duty to protect your confidentiality. Unless the law requires it, the Firm and its Agents will not disclose your confidential information or the confidential information to other parties.
- The duty to safeguard trust funds and other property held by the Firm or its Agents.
- The duty, when negotiating, to present contract proposals in an objective and unbiased manner and disclose the advantages and disadvantages of the proposals.

Please review this information carefully. An Agent of the Firm can answer your questions about brokerage services, but if you need legal advice, tax advice or a professional home inspection contact an attorney, tax advisor, or home inspector. This disclosure is required by section 452.135 of the Wisconsin statutes and is for information only. It is a plain-language summary of the duties owed to a customer under section 452.133 (1) of the Wisconsin statutes.

Confidentiality Notice to Customers

The Firm and its Agents will keep confidential any information given to the Firm and its Agents in confidence, or any information obtained by the Firm and its Agents that a reasonable person would want to be kept confidential, unless the information must be disclosed by law or you authorize the Firm to disclose particular information. The Firm and its Agents shall continue to keep the information confidential after the Firm is no longer providing brokerage services to you.

The following information is required to be disclosed by law:

1. Material Adverse Facts, as defined in section 452.01 (5g) of the Wisconsin Statutes.
2. Any facts known by the Firm or its Agents that contradict any information included in a written inspection report on the property or real estate that is the subject of the transaction.

To ensure that the Firm and its Agents are aware of what specific information you consider confidential, you may list that information below, or provide that information to the Firm and its Agents by other means. At a later time, you may also provide the Firm and its Agents with other information you consider to be confidential.

Confidential information: _____

Non-Confidential information: (The following information may be disclosed by the Firm and its Agents): _____

(Insert information you authorize to be disclosed, such as financial qualification information.)

Definition of Material Adverse Facts

A "Material Adverse Fact" is defined in Wis. Stat 452.01 (5g) as an Adverse Fact that a party indicates is of such significance, or that is generally recognized by a competent licensee as being of such significance to a reasonable party, that it affects or would affect the party's decision to enter into a contract or agreement concerning a transaction or affects or would affect the party's decision about the terms of such a contract or agreement.

An "Adverse" fact is defined in Wis. Stat. 452.01 (1e) as a condition or occurrence that a competent licensee generally recognizes will significantly and adversely affect the value of the property, significantly reduce the structural integrity of improvements to real estate, or present a significant health risk to occupants of the property; or information that indicates that a party to a transaction is not able to or does not intend to meet his or her obligations under a contract or agreement made concerning the transaction.
