Factory Bldg.

Factory 52 is a mixed-use redevelopment of the former U.S. Playing Card factory in Norwood, Ohio, spanning over 20 acres. The project has over 500,000 of combined residential, retail, restaurant, office, and entertainment space.

The development includes 442 completed apartment units directly above and surrounding the commercial space, with an additional 128 units under construction. Between all phases of the project, the development will offer approximately 960 residential units.

Featured on site is an 20,000+ SF multi-vendor food hall. Featuring 10+ unique operators, with chef-driven concepts in a industrial-chic setting. The space sees over 400,000 annual visits, making it a magnet for locals and visitors alike.

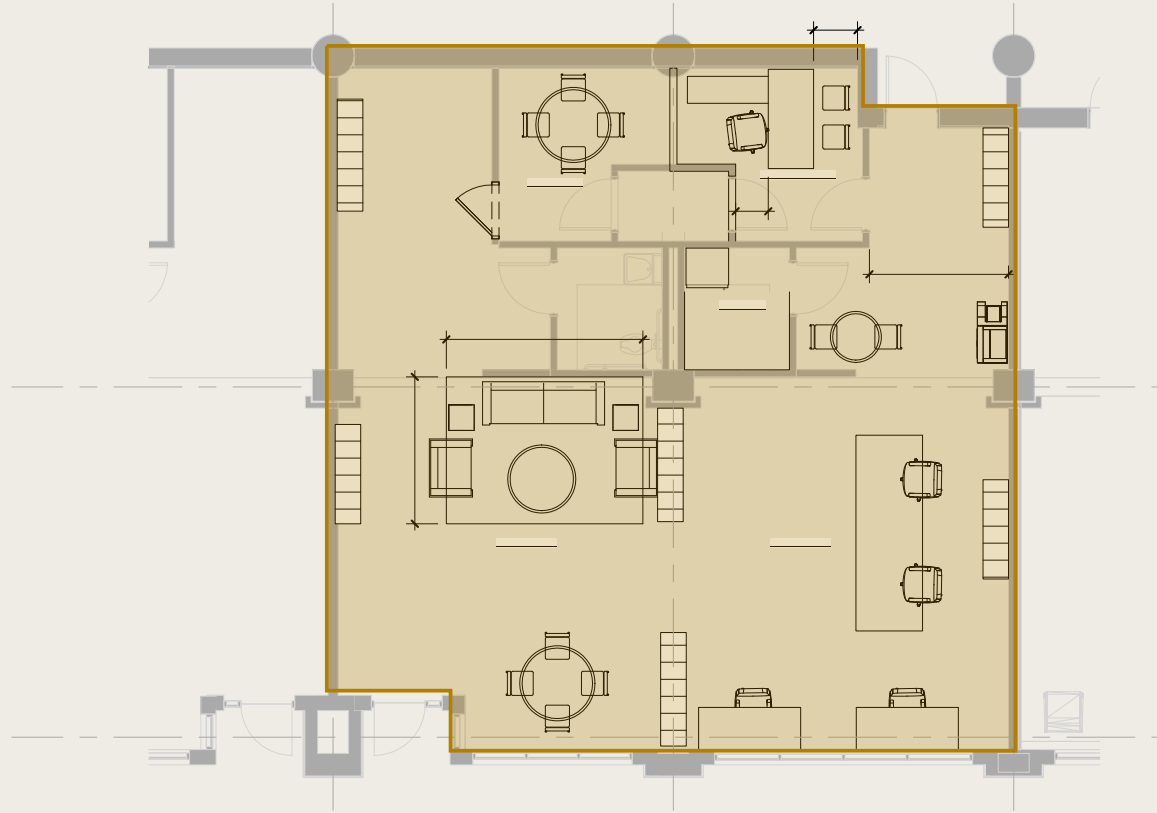

Factory 52 features inviting green spaces, stylish and modern residential units, locally loved breweries, and Gatherall Food Hall. Whether it's grabbing coffee with friends, enjoying an outdoor concert, or simply taking in the atmosphere, Factory 52 offers something at every turn.
