Location > Highlights

Indigo Square is centrally located in East Liberty, in the East End of Pittsburgh. In just the past few years this area has experienced a commercial development renaissance. Close to major universities, hospitals and cultural institutions, Indigo Square is situated in an area that is highly conducive to business development. New retail store including The Home Depot, Target and Whole Foods have opened nearby, and the business district has seen major public investments in infrastructure.

The Intercontinental Hotel is now under construction.
