The project is located nearby the Oakwood Plaza North and Dania Pointe Projects. Oakwood Plaza boasts 9 million visits per year with big box tenants such as The Home Depot, BJ's Wholesale Club, Burlington Coat Factory, and City Furniture. Dania Pointe attracts approximately 5 million visits per year with experiential retail tenants like, Bowlero, Improv, Regal Cinemas, Urban Outfitters and multiple restaurant offerings such as Bento, Burger Fi, Cooper's Hawk, Firebirds, First Watch, Lime, Starbucks, Tommy Bahama's Marlin Bar and Too Jay's Deli among others.

Also nearby are more than 1,100 hotel rooms, focused on catering to travelers visiting either Port Everglades which welcomes over 3.8 million cruise passengers annually or Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport, which welcomes more than 36 million passengers each year and is currently one of the fastest recovering airports in the US. Fort Lauderdale's tourism industry is recovering quicker than most areas in the country and have demonstrated strong performance in both occupancy and revenue.

Dania Pointe earned the ENR Southeast's 2020 Best Projects, office/retail/mixed-use development, Award Of Merit. Spirit Airlines is investing $250 million to develop their new 500,000 square foot headquarters at Dania Pointe. Multifamily development is on the rise in the area with 583 existing units, 264 of which were just completed in 2020 at Avery Dania Pointe I, 301 units under construction at Oasis Pointe, and 1,516 units planned. Demand to live in the area is strong with 91% occupancy in existing units and the units recently completed in 2020 already 71.6% occupied.
